

Sinclair Broadcasting uses the public airwaves free of charge, but is not serving the public interest. This company is simply using public domain to air propaganda for special interests. This is not serving our communities. The way that Sinclair is forcing their stations to air anti-Kerry shows days before the election makes it clear that they are out to serve private agendas.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules. This example highlights the dangers of media consolidation. Thank you.